We make saving money on your Home & Contents insurance easy

Building a new home is a big financial undertaking and protecting your investment is important.

Fortunately we can offer you very competitive Home & Contents insurance that could help ensure your home and valuable contents are protected while saving you money.

Underwritten by Auto and General, this insurance offer has been specifically developed in conjunction with HIA Insurance Services to meet the general (or common) needs of the Australian homeowner.

And we're making it easy for you with our simple 3 step process:

1

Register your interest

When you've signed your building contract we'll send you an email asking you to register to receive this great insurance offer. There's nothing more to do!

2

We'll contact you for a quote

As your new home approaches completion we will email you to go online and get your quote, that is up to 50%* cheaper than our standard rates in the market today.

3

You reap the rewards

Simply pay your premium through any one of our easy payment options and relax knowing your new home is covered by a broadform policy designed for the common needs of homeowners.
