HIA Insurance Services announces new CEO

HIA Insurance Services announced today that David Turner has been named Chief Executive Officer, from 1st February 2009. David replaces Greg Donovan who has served as HIA Insurance Service's Managing Director since 2005. David, who is a qualified builder, has held the position of National Manager for Warranty with HIA Insurance Services for the past 13 years, prior to which he was an employee of the HIA for 3 years.

"David brings the right skill set to lead HIA Insurance Services as we move into 2009," said retiring Managing Director Greg Donovan, who moves to a new appointment with Aon Australia. In recognition of the pivotal role Greg has played at HIA Insurance Services he also becomes a director on the HIA Insurance Services board.

"David has been a great support to me over the years and has extensive experience in the industry. Over this time, he has developed quality relationships with a range of major builders, insurers and government representatives," added Mr. Donovan.

"I'm very pleased to take on this new role," said David Turner. "This is a great company with highly innovative products, extremely highly skilled and dedicated employees, and a core value of working for our clients and the industry to develop and promote insurance services. I'm excited about the opportunity to lead HIA Insurance Services and to support our clients success going forward."

David Turner was most recently National Manager for Warranty with HIA Insurance Services and will continue to be based in HIA Insurance Services Melbourne office. He is well respected in both the residential construction industry and the insurance broking industry and we look forward to welcoming him in this new role.
